Virginia Legislature.

Tuesday, January 21.

A communication from the Senate by their clerk, that they had passed the bill "concerning the Wellsburg and Washington Turnpike Company" with an amendment, in which the H. of D. concurred. We seize this occasion to say that Wellsburg is a new name given by an act of the present Legislature to the town of Charlestown, in the county of Brock.

On motion of Mr. Mercer, of L. ordered that the committee of finance have leave to sit during the session of this house.

On motion of Mr. Cooke, of Norfolk, Resolved, that the committee of roads and internal navigation, be instructed to prepare a bill, authorising the board of public works to subscribe so much of the funds of that board to the new shares, authorised by an act of the last session to be subscribed to the Dismal Swamp Canal Company, as will make the interest of the state in that canal, equal to two fifths of the whole capital of the company.

An engrossed bill "To provide a public library" for the use of the Legislature, the Executive, the Courts, &c. was taken up, and the various blanks filled, on motions of Messrs Mercer, of L. and Tucker, so as to draw the money from any surplus which might remain out of the fund appropriated to the improvement of the public square; to appoint the secretary of the board of public works, the librarian, with a salary of $200; and to appropriate, for ten years, a sum not less than $300, nor more than $1000 per ann. for the purchase of books. The question being then put on the passage of the bill, by yeas and noes, the bill was rejected; yeas 61, noes 85.

The house, according to the order of the day, proceeded to the election of a member of the privy council, in the room of Arthur Smith, resigned; when, on the 2d ballot, William F. Pendleton was eclected.

Thomas Ritchie was re-elected public printer without opposition.

The house, according to the further order of the day, resolved itself into a committee of the whole, on the report on the memorial of the Staunton Convention, &c.
Mr. Hay in the chair.

The committee were addressed in a long speech from Mr. Doddridge, in opposition to the propositions of Mr. Smyth, and in favor of the report of the select committee. He was followed by Mr.
Conston, on the same side.

After he had concluded his argument, on motion of Mr. Tucker, the committee rose; and the house adjourned till tomorrow ten o'clock.

Yesterday after receiving or reading bills and resolutions which will be noticed hereafter, the house of delegates resolved themselves into a committee of the whole, on the report of the committee on the memorial of the Staunton Convention.

Mr. Tazewell occupied the floor for more than three hours, he spoke in opposition to the substitute offered by Mr. Smyth, as well as to the report of the select committee, he was opposed to the substitute, 1st, because the house did not possess legislative power, under the constitution, to adopt such a measure; 2d, because if they did not possess such a power it was highly inexpedient to exercise it at this time, and 3d, because if they had the power and it was expedient to exercise at this time, they were called upon to exercise it in the most objectionable of all possible modes, thus disregarding with the mover, Mr. Smyth, both as to the end and the means which his substitute proposed he should conceive himself bound to oppose it with all his strength, so long as it was pending before the house.

He averred that he was opposed to the report of the select committee, but his objections were of a character somewhat distinct from those which he pressed against Mr. Smyth's proposition. Should the majority sanction that measure, he should be prepared to surrender his opposition to it, and to unite with good faith giving it such a shape as would render it most palatable & perfect. He said he should therefore pursue this course.
He should vote against the substitute; when the committee rose, he should move the report of the select committee to be postponed to the 31st of March, if that motion failed he should then unite with the majority in carrying their wishes into effect, and should offer an amendment calculated to carry them into effect in the most desirable form.

Having thus sketched the outlines of his opinion, and the course he meant to pursue, he proceeded in the argument at large. He attacked the proposition of Mr. Smyth, and developed a considerable length the three objections he had taken. dwelling with particular emphasis on the qualification of the voters which Mr. Smyth was willing to admit, and disclaiming the idea of extending the elective franchise to any but the freeholder.

He objected to the report of the select committee, because it went to recommend to the people a change of the constitution; and a call of the convention; an authority, which he contended the legislature did not possess. But, that if they would have a convention, if they would exercise the power of recommending one, he could propose a measure which was calculated to produce the just result, without the expense and to mollify the legislature appointing a committee to revise the constitution, and to digest a scheme of amendments proper to be approved, to be reported to the next session of the legislature. Mr. T. here read the resolutions he meant to offer by way of amendment. He added, that the next legislature might submit the proposition of this select board to the people, to be acted on in their primary assemblies, in the succeeding spring, or at a convention to be appointed by the people, if that course should appear most desirable. Mr.

T. stated the benefits to result from such a board; that the smaller such a body was, the cooler and more judicious were its deliberations likely to prove.

When Mr. Tazewell concluded, the chairman again read over the resolutions proposed by Mr. Smyth—when he rose to amend the 1st resolution by striking out the words "every free and lawful citizen" who was to vote for delegates to the convention, and to insert in lieu thereof "every white male citizen of the commonwealth aged 21 years."

Which motion prevailed without opposition.

The question then required upon Mr.
Smyth's substitute, as thus amended, and lost without a division.

The report of the select committee was still before the committee—but, on Mr.
Banks' motion and on Mr. Mercer's suggestion, that the report had been gone through and that it was better to discuss it in the house, the committee rose—when Mr. Tazewell, in compliance with his promise, moved to postpone the consideration of the select committee to the 21st of March.

Mr. Mercer, intimating that he should answer the argument of Mr. Tazewell today, moved the house to adjourn—which was carried.

SENATE.

The New Bank Bill has been discussed in the Senate for several days, with great earnestness, and with great ability.—Yesterday a question was taken on striking out the Literary Fund bill, which was carried by 12 yeas to 8. It is impossible to predict with certainty the shape which the bill will ultimately assume, but from the opinions which have been expressed on the floor, it has been suggested, that it is possible two banks may be preferred in the Senate, one at Wheeling and the other at Winchester with branches. We repeat, however, it is absolutely impossible to ascertain with any sort of precision on the shape which the question may ultimately assume.

Yesterday after receiving or reading
solved themselves into a committee of

JAMES KENNEDY & SON,

BOOKSELLERS, KING STREET,
Have just received from LEE'S PATENT MEDICINE Store, No. 46 Maiden Lane, N. York, A FRENCH SUPPLY

Of the following genuine Medicines.
For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, is recommended.

Haun's Anti-Bilious Pills.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly gratifying to the inventor, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places, can be adduced, who have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases extremely desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to ease off superfluous bile & prevent its morbid secretions—to restore & amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration, and thereby prevent colds which is so often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual constiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions of acuteness in their stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles, so commonly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and sex, in it contains nothing but what is constitutionally innocent, and is also mild in its operation, cannot injure the most delicate person, and is the tenderest of infants of a weak old, would no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and most purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Terebra, or large round worm; the Ascarides, or small round worm; the Cucurbitina, or short, flat, white worm; and the Tænia, or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long, and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat of convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & foetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face coated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of choler—a dreadful disease, which actually destroys the hands of the labourer, and our citizens are taught to remedy known, and are rendered both alth and strength a great number, whom in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, by absorbing all the acrimonious slime and foulness, which suffered to accumulate, never fails to cure and finally ruin them.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.

ROBBERY.

On the night of the 6th of December 1816, the Exchange Office of the subscriber, Bridge street, Georgetown, from appearances by a false key, was robbed of the following property, in specie, consisting of dollars, change, American and English gold, about 200 dollars; bank notes, mostly three dollar notes of the bank of Washington, and some small tickets, together about 30 dollars, a one pound note of the bank of England, and one hundred and sixty four lottery tickets, as per numbers below. The lottery tickets can be of no use to the persons taking them, and an attempt to pass them would only lead to a detection, it is therefore hoped that the person or persons who took them, will return them to the subscriber through the Post Office at Georgetown. A liberal Reward will be paid by the subscriber for any information that may lead to the discovery of the persons or a recovery of the property. All keepers of lottery offices in the United States will please to keep a list of the numbers of the following tickets, as it may lead to a discovery of the theft.
